

Music in the Louisiana Delta

Welcome

to the Louisiana Delta where music conveys our past and present heritage. Music combined with art and outdoor recreation makes the Delta a special place to visit. Because our music venues are best toured at night, we want you to begin your travels by visiting some of the attractions of the region.

Day 1

Morning:

First stop is the Biedenharn Coca-Cola Museum and Gardens located in Monroe. This tourism destination includes the Coca-Cola Museum; Biedenharn home and garden; and the Bible Museum. Tours are available by calling 800-362-0983. Tours are $6 for adults and $4 for children. For music lovers this is a great place to visit. Guests who bring their sheet music can play the baby grand in the Biedenharn home.

Afternoon:

Your afternoon travels will take you to Antique Alley, located on the Ouachita River on Trenton Street in West Monroe. This re-vitalized downtown shopping district has two eateries to choose from Kayla's Kitchen and The Original West Monroe Coney Island.

Antique Alley is located in the Cotton Port Historic District. Cotton Port was West Monroe's first name. It was changed officially to West Monroe in 1883. Antique Alley features over 40 shops.

Nighttime:

Are you ready for some music? A local favorite since 1980 is Enoch's Irish Pub and Café located at 507 Louisville Avenue in Monroe. This family run venue's website includes a calendar so you can plan your trip around live music. This pub is a great place to enjoy both music and food. Enoch's has music several nights during the week and on weekends. The music is a mix of Louisiana, Irish, Americana, Texas Roadhouse, Jazz and Blues.

Day 2

Morning:

Wake up, enjoy your coffee and then get ready to shop. First stop is Matt's Music. Matt has been part of the music community since 1981 catering to local musicians, tourists and online customers. He has a large selection of quality musical instruments and audio gear.

Afternoon:

For lunch, try Willie's Duck Diner, owned by Willie on the reality show Duck Dynasty. His menu features Cajun entrees, home-cooking and fast food. After lunch, take a trip to where it all started for the popular Robinson Family, the Duck Commanders Store. Who knows, you might meet one of the Robinson's.

Next, travel to West Monroe to meet Jeff and Libby Landry owners of Landry Vineyards. They have a wine tasting room, and offer tours and concerts year-round. From the tasting room you can see the vineyards. Call in advance for tours. Landry Vineyards' concerts feature classic rock, Zydeco, rhythm and blues. Concerts start at 3:30 p.m. and end at 7:30 p.m. Admission varies from $5-8. No food or beverages can be brought in. The tasting room is open for the concert. So, bring your blanket or lawn chair and sit on the hillside and enjoy music.

Nighttime:

It's your last night, and time to travel to the Live Oaks Bar and Ballroom located in downtown Monroe. They offer a variety of live acts. Call in advance to learn about their concerts.
